The seventh International Conference on Communications and Networking (ComNet'2018, IEEE Conference) is organized by MEDIATRON and SUP'COM and aims at bringing together ICT researchers from northern and southern countries to meet, to exchange ideas and expertise, and to initiate and strengthen cooperation on topics related to communications and networking. The conference positions itself as a platform to researchers and practitioners both from academia and industry to meet and share cutting-edge research and development in these fields.

ComNet'2018 will provide an excellent international forum for sharing knowledge and research results in theories, methodologies and applications in different topics related to communications and networking, in both wired and wireless networks, from a theoretical as well a practical point of view. Authors are solicited to contribute to this conference by submitting original articles that illustrate research results, projects, surveying works and industrial experiences that describe significant advances in the following areas, but not limited to:
